Objectionable Materials-Porn in Florida Public Schools

In 2017, Florida Citizens Alliance (FLCA) identified 9 novels used in many media centers (libraries) in Florida School Districts which violate existing anti-pornography statutes FS 847.001 (para3, 6,8 and 10) and FS 847.012 (para 3a 3b, para 5 and 6). These laws require a 3rd degree felony charge, yet are blatantly ignored in most Florida counties.

In the fall of 2019, FLCA initiated a novels review project of 44 novels we received from several sources including parents and grandparents regarding novels being used in Florida schools. We created the list based on several public records requests, input from some of our teams' efforts in various counties, input from these parents/grandparents and a very popular list of novels from LGBTQ materials from Christian Patriot Daily .

Let us emphasize: this list is by no means exhaustive. Most School districts refuse to give residents access to library materials (required when HB 989 was signed into law by Gov Scott in 2017), or they charge a prohibitive fee to provide the materials requested or gain access.

For this project, FLCA created two templates: one for traditional text novels and one for a cross-section of LGBTQ books recommended for kids as young as 12 months, but primarily targeted at ages 3-8. Thirty-five (35) separate FLCA volunteers stepped up. Each of them read, yellow-highlighted and tabbed one of these novels. They also documented a least 6 offending and/or illegal passages in their template, resulting in a completed novel review.

Additionally, FLCA asked team members to make a local Public Records Request (PPR) in their respective school districts to assess if, where, and how many of these books were in use for their respective county. So far eleven (11) counties have responded with at least partially requested PPR information at no charge. Local teams paid for PRR results from 2 counties against our advice. Additionally, five (5) counties have requested a significant fee and numerous other counties have not yet responded:

defined in s. 847.001, explicit and detailed verbal descriptions or narrative accounts of sexual excitement, or sexual conduct and that is harmful to minors.”

Here is the list of the 44 novels included in the project. Some of the LGBTQ novels are in elementary schools but most are targeted for pre-K and we had no way to confirm their use. The LGBTQ books for ages 12months+ to 8 years promote gender self-identification and same-sex marriage which violate Florida’s Constitution and infringe upon the rights of almost all citizens. Four (4) LGBTQ novels were added after the public records requests.

Book 4: Dreaming in Cuban by Cristina Garcia (no age declared) 6 most egregious passages documented Page 71 “The other soldier held Lourdes down as his partner took a knife from his holster. Carefully, he sliced Lourdes’s riding pants off to her knees and ties them over her mouth. He cut through her blouse without dislodging a single button and slit her bra and panties in two. Then he placed the knife across her belly and raped her.”

Book 5: The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison 6 most egregious passages documented

Page 130-131 “Then he will lean his head down and bite my tit. Then I don’t want him to rub my stomach anymore. I want him to put his hand between my legs. I pretend to wake up, and turn to him, but not opening my legs. I want him to open them for me. He does, and I be and wet where his fingers are strong and hard. I be softer than I ever been before. Then I don’t want his hand between my legs no more, because I think I am softening away. I stretch my legs open, and he is on top of me. Too heavy to hold, and too light not to. He puts his thing in me. In me. In me. I wrap my feet around his back so he can’t get away. I know he wants me to come first. But I can’t. Not until he does. Not until I feel him loving me. Just me. Sinking into me. Not until I know, that my flesh is all that b on his mind. That he couldn’t stop of he had to. That he would die rather than take his thing out of me. Not until he has let go of all he has, and give it to me. Most times he’s thrashing away inside me before I’m woke, and through when I am.”

Page 75-76 “All I want you weaklings to do is hold him down. Can you manage that?” Wali and Kamal nodded. They looked relieved. Assef knelt behind Hassan, put his hands on Hassan’s hips and lifted his bare buttocks. He kept one hand on Hassan’s back and undid his own belt buckle with his free hand. He unzipped his jeans. Dropped his underwear. He positioned himself behind Hassan. Hassan didn’t struggle. Didn’t even whimper. He moved his head slightly and I caught a glimpse of his face. Saw the resignation in it. It was a look I had seen before. It was the look of the lamb.”

Page 6-7 “When I was around two years old, I had what I now refer to as the Good Fairy dream. After a long morning of playing with Ari’s dolls, dressing them up and staring enviously at the smooth area between their legs, I took a nap in my sister’s bed. I had no idea that I was asleep – the world seemed crystal clear as a grown woman wearing a blue gown floated into the room. She wasn’t quite like the imaginary creatures you see in cartoons, but I knew instinctively that she was a fairy, thanks to her gossamer wings, the glowing light all around her, and the magic wand that suddenly appeared in her hand. Other than those fantasy details, she looked and acted like an adult, full of purpose and authority. I don’t remember her exact words, or even if she spoke out loud at all, but I knew why she was there. She promised to use her wand to turn my penis into a vagina. I was ecstatic when I woke up. I felt like all the answers to my prayers were possible. The dream had felt so true, so real, that I knew it was just a matter of time before the fairy would appear again and do what she’s said she could do. I ran downstairs and found my mother sitting in our living room. “When is the Good Fairy going to come with her magic wand?” I asked. “The Who?” “The Good Fairy, who will turn my penis into a vagina!” My Mom tells me now that this was a huge turning point for her, the first time she truly began to realize that what I was going through probably wasn’t a phase. I remember being crushed when she said no fairy was going to come for me. I had been filled with so much hope when I’d woken up, and it was destroyed within a matter of minutes. In response I started to assert myself even more.

Page 28 “She gasped and I felt her clench around me, her breath ragged. She bit into my shoulder of my jacket and wrapped her leg around me as I began to move into her hard and fast against the wall. Any moment someone could enter the stairwell and catch me fucking her, and I couldn’t care less. I needed to get her out of my system.”

Page 223-224 “Now she felt his hands moving under her T-shirt, slipping beneath the lace of her bra. Her legs tangled with his; he rubbed up against her. When Matt tugged up her shirt, so that the cool air feathered over her skin, she snapped back to reality. “We can’t do this,” she whispered. Matt’s teeth scraped over her shoulder. “We’re parked on the side of the road.” He looked up at her, drugged, feverish. “But I want you,” Matt said, like he had a dozen times. This time, though, she glanced up. I want you. Josie could have stopped him, but she realized she did not intend to. He wanted her, and right now, that was what she most needed to hear. There was a moment when Matt went still, wondering if the fact that she hadn’t shoved his hands away meant what he thought it meant. She heard the rip of a foil condom packet- How long had he been carrying that around? Then he tore at his jeans and hiked up her skirt, as if he still expected her to change her mind. Josie felt Matt pulling aside the elastic of her underwear, the burn if his finger pushing inside her. This was nothing like the times before, when his touch had left a track like a comet over her skin; when she found herself aching after she told him she wanted to stop. Matt shifted his weight and came down on top of her again, only this time there was more burning, more pressure. “Ow,” she whimpered, and Matt hesitated. “I don’t want to hurt you,” he said. She turned her head away. “Just do it”, Josie said, and Matt pushed his hips flush against hers. It was the kind of pain that- even though she was expecting it-made her cry out. Matt mistook that for passion. “I know, baby,” he groaned. She could feel his heartbeat, but from the inside, and then he started to move faster, bucking against her like a fish released from a hook on a dock. Josie wanted to ask Matt whether it had hurt the first time he had done it, too. She wondered if it always would hurt. Maybe the pain was the price everyone paid for love.

Summary/conclusions:

Almost all of these pre K-12 novels violate Florida statutes with sexually explicit content or undermine Florida Constitution that marriage is between and man and a woman. And they certainly violate common decency for age-appropriate material and undermine Judeo- Christian and traditional family values.

Let us emphasize: this list is by no means exhaustive. With all the great literature available, public schools have no business or right to subject children to this smut.

We urge parents to be extremely vigilant on what their kids are reading.

We demand that the Attorney General enforce existing anti-pornography statutes (Chapter 847) and that the legislature take whatever action is necessary to strengthen existing laws that are being completely ignored by public schools!
